

Item 9

We are going to build a multiroom chat application using node.js in server side with socket.io for providing the main functionality and a simple html, css and javascript (with JQuery) for client side. Deployed with Heroku so the process of building and launching the server is simplified. We try to offer a better service for Acme Users clients with the creation of an "Assistance" room and a "General" room for everybody.